

Practices of Delivering World-Class Wealth Management Services

IBF Wealth Management Seminar 2008

The Institute of Banking and Finance (IBF) is pleased to present the IBF Wealth Management Seminar 2008 – Practices of Delivering World-Class Wealth Management Services which will be held on Monday, 17 November 2008 at the Grand Hyatt Singapore, from 8.30am to 2pm.

The shortage of experienced private bankers is currently one of the biggest challenges faced by private banks. IBF intends to raise awareness of good practices in wealth management via this seminar and discuss ways to develop professionals who are well equipped to anticipate and respond to the trends and changing needs of the wealth management industry.

The keynote speaker for this event is Mr Deepak Sharma, Chief Executive Officer – International, Citi Global Wealth Management, who will share his insights on the topic of “Opportunities & Challenges for the Wealth Management Industry in Asia”.

IBF has also invited several distinguished experts in the wealth management industry to discuss and explore a range of exciting topics to further enhance the delivery of world-class wealth management services.

These speakers are: Dr Mario A. Bassi, Managing Director, Head Strategy and Business Development Asia-Pacific, Deutsche Bank AG, Private Wealth Management, Mr David Chong, Chairman, Portcullis TrustNet Group, Mr Rajesh Malkani, Regional Head of Private Bank, SEA, The Standard Chartered Private Bank, Ms Tan Su Shan, Head of Private Wealth Management for Southeast Asia and Australia, Morgan Stanley and Mr Tee Fong Seng, Managing Director, Head of Wealth Management, SEA, UBS AG.
