Is Singapore poised to be the philanthropic hub of Asia?

Speaker Mr David Chong
*Founder and Chairman,
Portcullis TrustNet Group*

To answer that question, it is useful to touch on the basics of charities, and charities' relationship to tax, trusts and philanthropy.

It is also interesting to look at the role that charities play in terrorism. David is Founder and Chairman of Portcullis TrustNet Group, one of the biggest groups of trust companies in Asia.

Join us as David first talks about:

- The Epitome of Philanthropy
- The relationship between Charities and Taxes
- What Charities have to do with Trusts

Following David's talk will be a panel discussion with panelists from the Foundations, Banking and Government sectors; who will weigh in with their views on Singapore and its potential as a philanthropic hub of Asia.
